QUEER CONCERTS .- The Belfast (Me.) Journal relates a funny story of a Dutch painter who had for a subject the sacrifice of Isanc. He represents Abraham as a sturdy old Dutch burgher, leveling a musket at his son, while the interceding angel spits in the pan to prevent the sacrifice!

Arvine, in his Cyclopedia of Anecdotes, relates many instances of laughable anachronisms of painters. Among others is that of the picture of Eden, in which Adam and Eve occupy the foreground, while in the background is a German student shooting ducks.

There is an old painting, by a French arable of the Lude Support in which the table of the Lude Support in the Lude Support i is decorated at both ends with tumblers holding eigar lighters.

I have used various remedies, been strict in my diet, have been deced with calumel and emeties day after day by physicians, but all to no good purpose. Hearing of the wonderful effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in the cure of dyspepsia, I procured some as a last resort; have used four bottles of the Medicine, and find the bid symptoms all removed, and myself once more enjoying good health. None but the dyspeptic sufferer, who has felt all the horrors of the discase, can at all appreciate the value of the medi-cine, I must sincerely hope that all will make trial of the medicine, add with me be cuabled to rejoice in the return of health.

My son Charles has been afflicted with inflama-mation of the hip joint. At age of five he was first und Sauce Pans, Coal Scuttles, [brass and iron,] attacked, inflamation increased until the hip was very badly diseased, and the joint seriously affected his leg, drawn up so that it was impossible to straighten it: a proffessor of surgery gave it was mis decided opinion that the leg would never has been added opinion that the leg would never has been added to the best and the leg would never has been added to the leg would never have been adde heal, and that the young man would never walk The disease increased so rapidly that for two and a half years he only walked with a crutch, and the efforts to exercise the limb was attended with great pain, so that he could not sleep. I watched him so attentively that for five mouths did not have one (all night's rest. He had heen treated by distinguished medical practitioners by leeching, blistering. &c., he had also been be-fore the Medical Clinique of Yale College. The remedies they recommended were most faithfully tried but without avail. This was his diseased and dreadful condition eighteen months: since when he commenced taking Myers' Rock Rose. One bottle was but partially taken when he was much better, continuing until three bottles had been taken, when a cure was entirely completed, now he is in excellent health. This is the testiamony of and can be corroborated by addressing MRS. CATHARINE McGILL. 94 Wallace St., New Haven, Ct.
